Newsletter 12 December 2025

Thank you to everyone who entered our Christmas Cracker competition. The art ambassadors had a very hard time trying to judge the competition but in the end decided that the prizes for the best crackers this year should be awarded to Alice C from Reception and Sandra from Y4. Congratulations to both of you and to everyone who took part. The art ambassadors thought your crackers were all amazing!

Year 3 Trip – St George's Cathedral

This week, Year 3 travelled to St George's Cathedral to take part in the Advent Service. Our children represented the school beautifully as they retold the story of the Annunciation through a graceful ballet performance. We are incredibly proud of them for sharing the message of Advent so thoughtfully and for demonstrating their talents so wonderfully. Well done, Year 3!

Christmas Fair

It was so lovely to see so many of you at this lovely event last Saturday. The Hall was packed full and there was so much on offer to all. (I didn't eat my supper as I'd eaten so much lovely food there!) Thank you so much to everyone for giving your time if you were running a stall, or just coming along to support our school. We raised an incredible £ 2,600 and, judging by my School Council meeting at lunchtime yesterday, the children have plenty of ideas on how we might spend it.

Very well done to Year 5 for having the stall which raised the most money - they'll have a great time at Air Jump !

Huge thanks, also, to our school PTA members - for doing such a great job in organising the event.

PTA Christmas Disco

Thank you to the PTA for organising our Christmas disco. The children had a great time - £843 was raised.

New Governor

Our Governing Body are delighted to welcome a new member from our community. Tumi Shenje (Mum to Anashe) joined us at her first meeting last week. She joins us as a co-opted governor for the time being until she is fully registered by the Diocese as a Foundation Governor. I know she will be an amazing addition to the group.

If you think you might be interested in becoming a school governor, do catch me for a chat.

Book Fair

English ambassadors delivered 45 new books across the school from funds raised at the book fair.

Christmas Story Writing

Well done to the 40 children who entered the Christmas story writing competition. 5 children received £5 book fair vouchers as prizes and everyone else received a festive treat as a well done.

Spare Carrier Bags

Any spare carrier bags can you please kindly donate them to our school - if you can hand them into the school office, many thanks.

EYFS Nativity

We were treated to such a beautiful re-telling of the Christmas story on Thursday morning when our youngest children performed their Nativity. I was so impressed by the confidence in singing, dancing and narration by all of the children. Our audience of Mums, Dads, Nans, Grandads etc. all watched with immense pride. Well done to the children and very well done to the staff, Mrs. Standing, Mrs. Beeson and Mrs. Nugent for their hard work in putting everything together.
